

Ms. Lilian Chan

Lilian Chan has over 3 decades of experience in the garment industry. She has held several management positions in factories and buying offices. As management staff in buying offices of renown brands such as Eddie Bauer, Banana Republic, Gap, Guess and Esprit, she has in depth understanding of merchandising and quality requirements among different customers. Having worked in various divisions of both the factories and buying offices, she is well versed in different categories of products in knits, sweaters and woven. Her global experience working with garments factories in various parts of Asia and Africa gave her great insights into the issues that the industry faces.
